Modification of Minority Groups' Representation in the Comcast/Time Warner Acquisition

Dear Ms. Dortch,

During the week of April 7th through 10th, the National Asian American Coalition, the National Christian Hispanic Leadership Conference, the Jesse Miranda Center for Hispanic Leadership and Christ Our Redeemer (COR) AME Church of Irvine met with four FCC commissioners and/or their staff to discuss the Comcast/Time Warner merger.

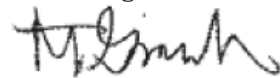

The groups discussed in large measure their initial filing with the FCC on February 21, 2014, "Growing Concerns Regarding Comcast's Acquisition of Time Warner and its Impact on Innovation, Minority Media and Further Consolidation in Related Industries."

A clerical error was made in the initial filing and in the April 16th, 2014 ex parte notice we filed with you.

The Black leadership represented related to COR Church, the Orange County Interdenominational Alliance and the Ecumenical Center for Black Studies. It mistakenly included representation of the 5,000 Black AME churches nationwide as part of this effort. The 5,000 Black AME churches nationwide are not part of any filings we have made.

We regret this clerical error. Please contact us if you have any questions. But, we believe this should fully resolve the matter.

Warm regards,

Robert Gnaizda
